BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Recommends sanction to the above grant from the Sri Ranganathaswami temple at Tirumale in the Magadi Taluk.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

It is reported that one Raghavendracher who is about 80 years old and who is a Brahmacharu has constructed a temple and a pond at a cost of about Rs 1000 on his own land, S.No. 134 measuring 3a 26g assessed at Rs 4-00 at a distance and about half a mile to the North of the Sri Ranganathaswami temple at Magadi and has dedicated it to Sri Nara simhadevaru and Sri Anjaneyadevaru and has been worshipping the deities for the past 30 or 40 years. He has also planted a tope containing 10 mango trees, 2 Ippe, 2 Valli, 2 Athi, 4 Ala, 1 Halasu and flower plants.

A petition largely signed by the residents of Magadi and other places was presented to the Amildar bringing the above fact to his notice and requesting him to recommend the grant of Rs 3 from the Sri Ranganathaswami temple so that worship in the temple may continue permanently after Raghavendrachar is extremely old. The Amildar having the matter referred to the temple dharmadars, they resolved in their meeting held on 27.1.12 that the Tasdik asked for might be granted.

The Dt Court after personal inspection of the temple on 15.5.14 recommends sanction to the Tasdik asked for and states that the institution is well kept and is useful to the people.

Attention is also invited to Raghavendrachar's petn dt: 27.4.14.

Submitted for orders.

Pdk(65) 28/5 From the statement of receipts and expenditure of the temple (Triennial) enclosed, it will be seen that the temple has a net average annual saving of nearly Rs 137/- and that there was a sum of Rs 691-3-4 at the credit of the temple.

Sir, I have the honor to state that it is reported by the Amildar of Magadi Taluk that one Raghavendrachar constructed a temple of Sri Narasimhaswami and Anjenaya devaru and a Kalyani in Survey No 134 under his holding at Durumalay The Magadi Taluk some 30 years ago and planted some trees which have now grown up, all at a cost of Rs 1000, That the said — Raghavendrachar is living at the said temple and attending himself to the puja work and that the Kalyani and the grove of trees have been very useful to the people resorting to the place Raghavendrachar being very old and poor has applied for a grant of a monthly tasdik of Rs 3/ from the funds of the Sri Ranganathaswami temple.

temple at Dharmalay, so that the puja may not be stopped after his death. Both the Amildar and the Sub Division Officer having recommended for the Dasdik and the Dharmadarsees of the Sri Ranganatha Swami temple having stated that a monthly grant of Rs 3/ can be spared from the funds of the latter temple, I inspected the place personally during my recent tour in the Magadi Taluk and found the temple, Kalyani and the grove all well kept and useful to the people. The petitioner seemed to take keen interest in the affairs of the institution and I, therefore, beg to recommend that a monthly cash grant of Rs 3/ may be sanctioned for the future maintenance of the institution from the source pointed out.

2. The file of Vernacular correspondence ending with Magadi Taluk Amildar's report No 383 dated the 14th May 1914 is herewith submitted for reference and kind return.
